July 24 - The Greater Harrisburg Concert Band - The Greater Harrisburg Concert Band is currently comprised of approximately 40 professional musicians, including many area music teachers and band directors. The membership is augmented by the talents of young, accomplished high school and college-age instrumentalists.

July 31 - Ilona Knopfler and the Steve Rudloph Trio

With a style that at times evokes Bonnie Raitt, Diane Shuur or Diana Krall, Parisian chanteuse Ilona Knopfler takes on some of the most popular tunes of the 60's and 70's on Some Kind of Wonderful, her debut for Mack Avenue Records. Although the 27 year old Knopfler was barely in diapers when many of the songs she interprets on Some Kind of Wonderful hit the airwaves, she manages to capture their timeless essence in versions that are distinctly her own.

August 7 - The Chopped Liver River Band - Thirteen musicians spanning several generations will present a wide variety of selections including Yiddish songs, popular show tunes, big band melodies and much more, combined with light-hearted comedy in true Klezmer style. The band has performed at the Fulton Opera House, Lancaster PA, Longwood Gardens, and at LancasterFest. The Chopped Liver River Band is affiliated with Congregation Shaarai Shomayim, Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Congregation Shaarai Shomayim is the fourth oldest Jewish community in North America.

August 14 - The Carpentier Quartet - The Carpentier Quartet is comprised of four Juilliard graduates who perform Latin American chamber music. Their performance techniques are as unique and diverse as the rich heritage of the music they present. They have performed in venues throughout the East Coast including individual appearances with the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra.

August 21 - The Greater Harrisburg Concert Band (Reprise) - The Italian Lake Summer Concert Series closes with a totally new program by the Greater Harrisburg Concert Band which will include a major focus on the band's brass section.
